6. Communities Committee Member

This committee advises the VP of Communities and assists the Vice President in the oversight of the groups. The existing communities are Public Plans, Healthcare, Emerging Leaders, Multiemployer Plans, Corporate Qualified Pensions, Smaller Actuarial Consulting Firms, Non-Medical Health and Welfare, HR, Compensation and Benefits and Expert Witness.

7. Communications Committee Member

This committee develops and implements the social media strategies to promote the value of membership in the Conference of Consulting Actuaries (CCA) to consulting actuaries and to support the promotional efforts of all CCA activities. Due to the nature of social media, the strategies must maintain a professional positive reflection upon CCA and its members.

8. JOIN a Community

The CCA is host to several actuarial communities; active forums for getting answers, sharing your concerns, and taking actions to help shape the profession. The specialized knowledge that CCA Communities' members share continually helps to guide the design of CCA presentations, seminars, audiocasts/webinars and other continuing education offerings, advancing the practice. Please login to www.ccactuaries.org to be able to join a community.
