Individual Process

Registration: Attendees must register with the CCA prior to the event. To register for a single webinar or for a subscription, please submit the appropriate payment through the CCA website. If registration for a subscription* occurs after any webinars have occurred in a given year, the full year subscription price is due for the remaining webinars (unless otherwise noted). Confirmations are sent upon registration.

CCA Member Rate: To qualify, the registrant must be a CCA member for the current year (dues paid in full).

U.S. Federal Government Employee Rates: To qualify for the government rate, the registrant must be a current U.S. Federal government employee.

Subscription: The CCA Board of Directors reserves the right to revise the webinar schedule, including substitutions of session topics and content. CCA ensures a minimum of 10 webinars each for the Healthcare Series and Retirement Series, which each include Cross Discipline topics, and a minimum of 17 webinars for the Complete Series subscription.

Participation Instructions: On the Monday before the webinar, an e-mail is sent to the registrant containing a link to download the presentation, call-in instructions with the link to access the live webinar, and certificate request instructions. This information is also sent on the morning of the live webinar.

Certificate of Attendance: The attendee must submit the Individual Participation Form via e-mail to conference@ccactuaries.org within two business days after the presentation date in order to confirm his/her attendance at the presentation.

Access to Recording: Continuing in 2021, webinar subscribers and registered attendees receive access to a recording of the program approximately one week after the event. Access to the recording is available for 6 months after the initial broadcast.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellations for a single webinar received in writing a minimum of 7 calendar days prior to the webinar will be refunded the full fee minus a $50 processing fee. After that date, no refunds are available. There are no cancellations or credits on unused subscriptions* or duplicate purchases within one firm.

About EA Continuing Education Credits: Please note that the proposed credits for all events listed here are subject to the final approval of the Joint Board for the Enrollment of Actuaries. When filing for renewal of enrollment with the JBEA or other credentialing organizations, it is the individual's responsibility to determine any redundancy of topics and/or content between the sessions attended for each renewal period. As the sponsor of continuing education, we try to note sessions that might have significant overlap, but the ultimate responsibility for claiming credits rests with the individual actuary.

Group Process

Registration: The responsible contact at each group location must register with the CCA. To register for the webinar, please submit the appropriate payment through the CCA website. The contact receives a confirmation upon registration.

CCA Member Rate: To qualify for the member rate, the contact for the group must be a CCA member for the current year (dues paid in full).

U.S. Federal Government Employee Rates: To qualify for the government rate, the registrant must be a current U.S. Federal government employee.

Participation Instructions: On the Monday before the webinar, an e-mail is sent to the responsible contact containing a link to download the presentation, call-in instructions with the link to access the live webinar for use with one connection from one location, and participant certificate request instructions. This information is also sent on the morning of the live webinar.

Deadlines for Request for Certificates of Attendance and Payment of Certificate Fees: Employees of your company who are participants are eligible to receive certificates if they are included in both your Group Participation Form and online payment. The responsible contact must submit the Group Participation Form to request certificates for all group participants online and pay $30/nonmember certificate requested within two business days following the conclusion of the webinar. Certificates are $30/nonmember and free to CCA members. Fees are due at the time the request for certificates is made. To submit the names for certificates, submit the completed Group Participation Form via e-mail to conference@ccactuaries.org and submit payment for any requested certificates through the following process:

- The responsible contact who originally registered for the presentation logs into the CCA website: <https://www.ccactuaries.org>
- Select the webinars from the “Past Programs” list,
- Use the “Register Group” function to select names online.
- If the responsible contact needs a certificate, the responsible contact needs to be included with the list of recipients on the excel Group Participation Form returned to conference@ccactuaries.org.
- Select names of all participants who require certificates of attendance. “Search by Name” and “Add New Contact” (for those not included on listing) functions are available.
- Payment of $30 for each nonmember certificate is required at the time certificate requests are submitted. Certificate requests are not fully processed without payment for nonmember certificates.
